

University of Southern Maine
USM Digital Commons

Newsance, 1957-1958

Student Newspapers

9-25-1957

Newsance, 09/25/1957

Louis Gervais

University of Maine in Portland

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.usm.maine.edu/newsance>

Part of the American Studies Commons, and the Creative Writing Commons

Recommended Citation

Gervais, Louis, "Newsance, 09/25/1957" (1957). Newsance, 1957-1958. 18.
<https://digitalcommons.usm.maine.edu/newsance/18>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Newspapers at USM Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newsance, 1957-1958 by an authorized administrator of USM Digital Commons. For more information, please contact jessica.c.hovey@maine.edu.

n	n	eee	w	w	SSSS	aaaa	n	ccc	eee
nn	n	e	w	w	s	a	a	nn	n	c	e
n	n	n	ee	w	w	w	SSSS	aaaa	n	n	n	c	ee
n	nn	e	w	w	w	s	a	a	n	nn	c	e
n	n	eee	WWWWW	SSSS	a	a	n	n	ccc	eee

THE WEEKLY PUBLICATION OF U OF MAINE IN PORTLAND

VOL. 4 September 25, 1957 No. 2

.....
 Harvey Jacobson, last year's freshman class president and a Portland High School graduate, was elected chairman of the Rump Council of the University of Maine in Portland at a special meeting Tuesday morning.

The Rump Council is the student government of the campus until the 1957-1958 class elections are held and the new student council is organized.

OUTING CLUB PLANS COOKOUT

The Outing Club of the University of Maine in Portland will hold a cookout at Little Sebago Lake on Tuesday evening October 1. The menu will consist of hot dogs, potato chips, and soda, at least. You are urged to eat all you can hold. The serving will start at 6:30 p. m.

Tickets can be obtained from Charles Doughty or Bernard Benson at seventy-five cents each. Maps will be posted on the campus bulletin boards showing the location.

Elected also to serve on the Rump Council are Kilton Saunders, Frank Cavallaro, and Joseph Gwarjanski. The other original members of the Rump Council are Cliff Andreason, Ralph Lynburner, and Peter Maroon.

Among special activities planned by the Rump Council are the traditional Mountain Day program and dance during October. Mountain Day this year will be October 15.

SPECIAL NOTICE!!!

.....
 As of 4:30 last night the official enrollment of the University of Maine in Portland was 296. Of this total 132 are veterans.

REGULAR COLLEGE ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS BEGIN TODAY AT 10

The Rump Council members will take over the assembly programs as a regular weekly feature at today's first all-college get-together. The program will begin at 10:15 in the auditorium, thus allowing the council to hold a short weekly meeting first.

Today's assembly will feature Dean Bonney and many official notices.

Attendance is obligatory of all students every week. Beginning next week each student will have an attendance card to turn in at the door as he enters.

The scripture reading today will be by Reverend Charles Poole, a member of the freshman class.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT

Mrs. Stevens of the cafeteria management announces that regular daily dinners will be ready Monday. Until then the usual hot dogs, beans, hamburgs, and sandwiches are available. AND PICK UP YOUR DISHES.

SENIOR CLASS CANDIDATES PLAN DANCE

"The Lamplighter (Der Laternenanzuenter) Dance" will take place from 8 p. m. to 12 midnight, Friday Oct. 4, in the UMP auditorium.

Kilton L. Saunders, senior presidential candidate, has announced that his "Campus Co-ops" will sponsor the affair, which will feature the music of Don Doane and his band.

The dance will be informal, cabaret-style, with lamplights, waiters, and refreshments.

THE NEWS ON THE NEWS.....

All students interested in working on the news staff of the University of Maine in Portland are invited to a meeting in Room 200 this afternoon at 3.

There are openings for admen, artists, writers, typists, photographers, and idea men.

TWO JEWISH HOLIDAYS TAKE PLACE

During the next two weeks, two of the most important Jewish Holidays will take place.

Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, begins on Wednesday evening, September 27th. This holiday marks the end of the Jewish year 5717 and begins the year 5718.

Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, is the most important of all the Jewish holidays. It begins on Friday evening, October 4th and ends on Saturday evening October 5th. This is a day where everyone of the Jewish faith prays for forgiveness of the sins that he has committed during the previous year.

Many of the Jewish students at the University of Maine in Portland will be absent from classes during these holidays.

William Loguercio has taken over the position of assistant librarian as an aid to our librarian, Mrs. Leighton. Bill is a graduate of Lynn Classical High in Lynn, Mass. and he also attended Wentworth Institute studying Electricity. He later was an apprentice of General Electric, and was a professional musician (tenor sax or clarinet) for eight years as an extra field. Then his world collapsed as he was stricken with paralysis from which he was not supposed to recover. Bill has been here in the college for the past three semesters and has been on the Dean's List every time. His major is Business Administration and accounting. In the future he plans to teach either business subjects or accounting at a high school level. He is at present 45 years old and resides in Portland while attending school. His home is in Gardner, Maine where his wife resides with his son and daughter.

OFFICE ANNOUNCEMENT

School bus tickets are now being sold in the office at the rate of 75¢ for ten rides, on the Portland Coach Co. busses. See Mrs. McCormick for tickets.

BOOKSTORE AND LIBRARY HOURS

The library is open Monday thru Friday from 9:00 to 3:30.

Mrs. Leighton, school librarian would like to remind you that the library is run like any public library. If you are not familiar with the system of taking out books out of the library, check at the desk.

CIRCLE K MEETING

The first meeting of the Circle K Club was held last night in the Cafeteria. President of the club is Cliff Andreassen. Vice-President is Ralph Lymburner.

Our Faculty

Luther I. Bonney, Dean of the University of Maine in Portland is a graduate of Bates College also, he received his B.A. and M.A. When there is any activity at the college he is present. A personal friend as well as an educator to all those whom are attending and have attended this college. He always has an extra moment for everyone. He is an instructor in financial math.

Justin O. Johnson, Dean of the Faculty and head of the math dept. is a graduate of Bates College where he received his A.B. "If you drop your pencil, in my class you are lost." is one of his pet sayings. He is a very congenial person and has great patience in his teaching ability. A good friend of all students and very helpful to students on all aspects of college life.

Alfred E. Clarke, Director of Admissions, is a graduate of Dartmouth where he received his A.B. He is also head of the history dept. He is very active in the Outing Club of which he is faculty advisor. He and Dusty, his dog, can be seen racing around the campus at almost any hour of the day or night. Lately, he has answered all questions put to him with, "We will have to iron them out".

Col. Harold M. Lawrence, Maine Nat'l Guard and Bursar of the college is a graduate of Boston University where he received his B.S. He is head of the accounting dept. He is also the hardest of all persons to find on campus when you want him. Mr. Lawrence is very active with the National Guard along with his family. He is always in a good mood and tries to make others the same. He does his work without any chance of error.

Mr. Goff wishes to announce that his Philology class has been rescheduled to 9:00 on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. This is E-20.

THE NEWSANCE

This issue includes articles by:

Louis J. Gervais
Clinton Hagen
Allen Levinski
Joseph Michaud
Kilton Saunders
Richard Webber

The Newsance is issued weekly on Wednesday by the staff of the News of the University of Maine in Portland, under the supervision of Mr. Jaques, Head of the English Department.